

Jacobsen clips

I did this with just a simple weld on channel lock pliers, some consider them spanner wrenches. But it's for taking the steel clips off the hydraulic motor from the reel assembly. Mainly the hydraulic lines are in the way on a lot of jacs, mainly if they install them with the looped part toward the lines.

