

Snipper holders for carts

I made these up a couple of years ago out of scrap metal around the shop . really helped keeping the damage from bouncing around and falling out down to a minimum. The second pic shows them on the cart, this year i'm going to get the guys to put the hooks facing towards each other .It will keep the snippers inside the cart area so they won't get hit by trees when rounding a corner.

